

COUNCIL ON ACADEMIC ADVISING
January 8, 2007
Minutes

Attending: Joanne Berg, Aaron Brower, Kathy Christoph, Jeff Hamm, Christina Klawitter, Leslie Kohlberg, Lynn Maki, Laurie Mayberry, Jo Meier, Marty Kanarek, Michael Morris, Amanda Ngola, Neil Richardson, Bonnie Schmidt, Judith Strand, Julie Stubbs, Stacy Walz.

A. Welcome & Introductions

Aaron Brower, Vice Provost for Teaching and Learning

B. DOS, Revised Mission and Vision – Aaron Brower and Kevin Helmkamp

Kevin Helmkamp from the Dean of Students Office and Aaron Brower, new Vice Provost for Teaching and Learning, presented the new DOS mission and vision statement. The new mission statement is: To cultivate, advance and interconnect the academic, professional, personal and social development of students; and to champion a respectful, globally-engaged and diverse university community. Discussion of the role that CAA can play in developing and enhancing the Wisconsin Experience.

C. December Minutes – Approved

D. Agenda for February or March

Course Guide- Joanne Berg and Kathy Christoph

E. Announcements

January SOAR – January 9 at 10 am, 1108 21 N. Park. In the past, advisor training has been done by SOAR. Wren’s office would like another group to take over the general advisor training (not SOAR-related training).

Advisor’s Toolkit – Many links aren’t working. Send information to Judith Strand with any changes you have.

F. Reports from other Campus Committees and Organizations

MACAA – Lynn Maki

The spring program is being developed. The December workshop was well attended. Many new advisors attended.

AAC- The mission and vision of ODOS was presented at the last meeting.

Announcement: Career Services

A donor gave $100,000 for 4 $5,000 scholarships which will be given annually for the next 5 years for career services summer internships. Career Services partnered with the Foundation to select students in L&S and SOHE who are needy students unable to travel to do an internship.

G. Looking Ahead – Setting Priorities

Small group discussion next time regarding CAA mission.